

A division of St. Francis Methodist School

Curriculum Description for Singapore-Cambridge GCE 'A' Level

Chinese Language and Literature H2 (9556)

The aims of this course are to encourage an understanding of the nature and methods of the literary study, interdependent skills of reading, analysis and communication, appreciation of and informed personal response to Chinese Literature and effective and appropriate communication.

There will be 2 papers:

Paper 1 (100 marks/50%)

Part 1 (35marks)

Part 2 (65marks)

Composition

Grammar, cloze passage and multiple choice questions,
Open-ended comprehension questions, Summary

Paper 2 (100 marks/50%)

Part 1 Structural questions of a literature text (poetry)

Part 2 Essay questions of a literature text (Short Story)

Part 3 Essay questions of a literature text (Drama)

Part 4 Essay questions of a literature text. (Novel)

Please refer to the SEAB website for more information regarding this course.

<http://www.seab.gov.sg>