

English Immersion Programme (EIP) 1 & 2

The English Immersion Programme (EIP) is designed to help students improve their English and prepare them for further studies in our Secondary level academic programmes. The EIP covers the four skills in English Language learning, namely reading, writing, listening and speaking. It aims to help students achieve the minimum proficiency in English required for them to learn more effectively when they join the secondary level classes.

Course Objective

The English Immersion Programme helps students become confident users of the English Language.
